IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Under New York's MCLE rule, this program has been approved for 3.5 credit hours in Practice Management. This program is NOT a transitional program and will not qualify for credit for newly admitted attorneys.

2:00 – 3:30 p.m. BREAKING THE CYCLE FOR YOUTH AT RISK

This program will focus on law-related issues involving youth at risk, including Ratification of the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child and an examination of recent research on adolescent development, which should better inform current law as it impacts this age group. The panel will also focus on strategies for reducing Family Court and criminal justice involvement; mentoring and coaching programs for adolescents, including youth in foster care, and the role for the bar and the legal community
